Security, Fire walls, Restricted access sites are a specialty with ABC Technologies. The web is a free-floating stream of visitors, where it is very important to secure essential protection for your business, especially in terms of privacy, anti-spam and e-commerce functions involving online payments. The ABC team offers you a spectrum of online security solutions that are customized to suit your type of business and at all desired level of operations. The ABC team offers you a spectrum of online security solutions that are customized to suit your type of business and at all desired level of operations.