

We create awareness in people how money works so they can make right decisions about how to manage their finances.

A combination of resources and a variety of educational material explain the basic rules of money in simple, As part of our services, our representatives meet with families in their own homes to educate them on how money works completely free of charge.